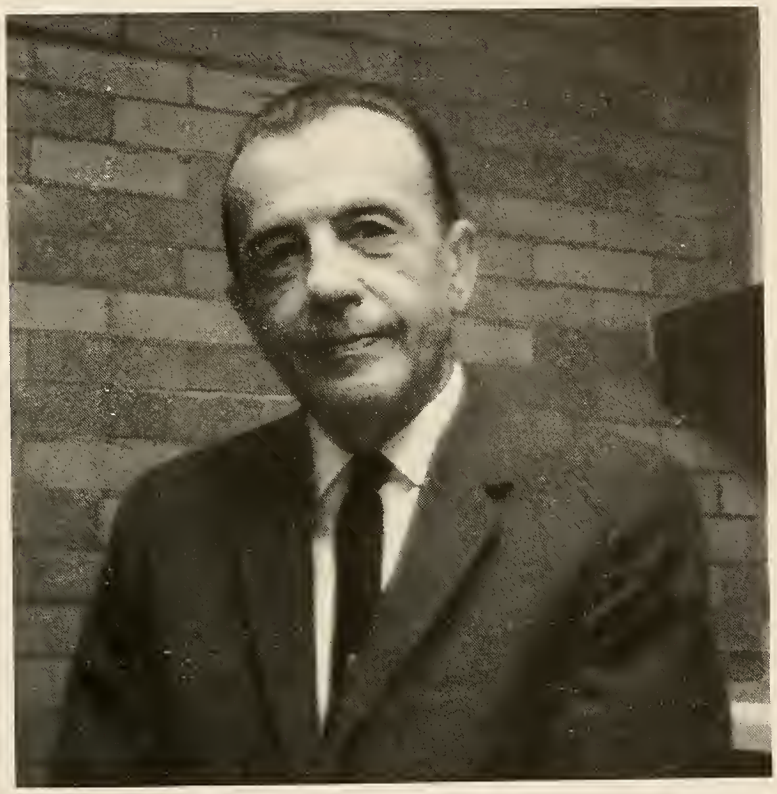
Dedication



L. EDWARD WARNER

Professor of Removable Prosthodontics

The friendly smile which greets the junior as he begins his clinical experience in Removable Prosthodontics is his introduction to Dr. Edward Warner. Soon Dr. Warner's helpful advice and encouragement are relied on by all students.

A man who has achieved the respect of his colleagues and students is truly deserving of the yearbook dedication of the Class of 1966.

In Memoriam

EDMOND G. VANDEN BOSCHE

The Class of '66 expresses profound sorrow over the loss of Dr. E. G. Vanden Bosche, gentleman, devoted educator, administrator, and friend to his colleagues and students. To those who knew him, he was the personification of dignity, honor, and professional attitude. We grew to love and respect him for his impartiality, integrity, friendliness, and warm interest in each student. The devotion which he manifested towards his work, to the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery, and to the student was truly remarkable, and his passing leaves a void in the lives of all with whom he had contact.

Throughout his long and distinguished career he sought, foremost, to maintain the highest standards of our noble profession, imprinting indelibly in the minds of his students the importance of character, professional demeanor, and love of fellowman. The passing of time will never dim our memory of Dr. E. G. Vanden Bosche, a giant we were privileged to be able to call friend. We can only hope, as a lasting tribute in appreciation for all he has given us, that our dental careers will reflect his inspiration as we seek to attain the admirable qualities he possessed and follow the high ideals synonomous with his name. We are certain this would have been his wish.

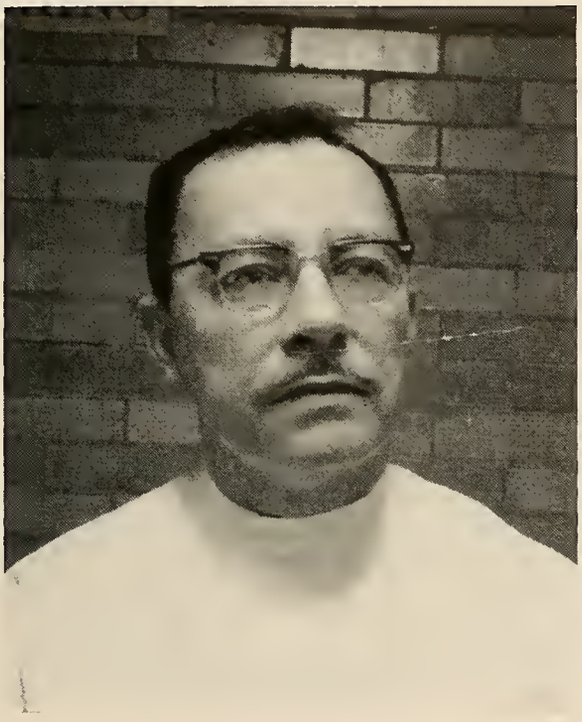
Classes

Honorary Senior Class President



JOSE DIAZ

The Class of June 1966 is very proud to select as its Honorary Class President a man small in stature, but a giant to all who know him — Dr. Jose Diaz.

Dr. Diaz's concern and respect for each individual tempered with his desire and ability as an educator place him extremely high in the esteem of every dental student. All the knowledge and confidence that he has imparted to us we will probably never know, but we do know that we are better for having known him.

We take this opportunity to extend a special "thank you" to an exceptional teacher and friend.

With anxiety and eagerness we first entered the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery. We were joining a group of three hundred students who had already made these hallowed halls their home, and now it was our privilege to participate in the very activities which bound these students to the B.C.D.S. We learned the same subjects they had been taught . . . we joined fraternities to which they belonged . . . we took a vital part in the activities that had become tradition at the school. But somehow it was not the same. Because we were the participants, each activity took on new meaning and became something marked "personal" for the Class of 1966.

Now, for many, we have walked this path as students for the last time. The memories of these days which at present are so vivid in our minds will tend to fade as the years pass. But through this, our yearbook, we will relive these days, for in it is the B.C.D.S. we knew.

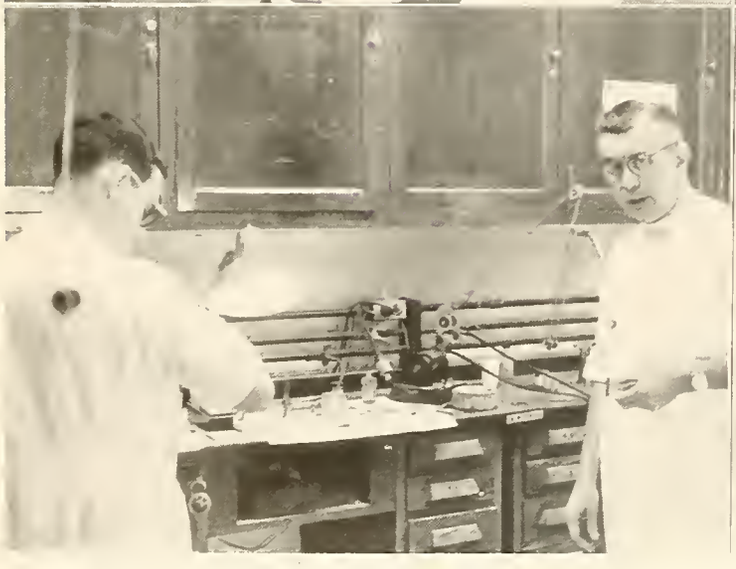
The Seniors



1. Waddaya mean we're not real doctors?
2. How'd you ever guess this is my first day in the cubicles?
3. Would you believe I'm a tartar scraper?
4. I think it needs a little more salt.
5. Would it help any if I said I'm sorry?
6. Don't you think you ought to lift your gown up?

The Seniors

1. Turn it off! Turn it off!
2. No, not everybody wears them, but not everybody has athlete's feet on the hands, either.
3. Not having a cuspidor in these cubicles is one thing, but these straws are ridiculous.
4. I wish he would leave so I could get back to work.
5. Did you ever swallow a gold fish before?
6. Wanna see what this baby can do when we open her up?

With great anticipation and apprehension the Class of 1967 entered the clinical years. Summer clinic initiated many into the new record-keeping system and progress was slow.

When the first semester began, exams came almost incessantly. The grind did not end until National Boards were over and the oral pathology course terminated. It was not until February that the Juniors were once again playing cards, passing time in the pool room, and talking about their first mandibular block injection. Who will forget their first denture case, Class II amalgam, root canal treatment, or pedo patient?

The Junior Class Skit Night showed the usual detailed preparation by the class. As June approached the shadow of exams and unfulfilled operative requirements worried the majority of the class.

First Row: Clausen, Belvin, DeVries, Kramer, Brand, Fielding, Houck, Greear, Davis, Dashiell.
Second Row: Archambault, Chyzus, Kaiser, Commette, Bergstresser, Hutton, Gold, Bernsohn, DeRussy, Lawson, Krongard, Bukzin, Halpern, Abrams.
Third Row: Holston, Gillis, Brownstein, Fine, Heffner, Kephart, Gibson, Fader, Einhorn, Giordano, Collins, Fox, Faniola.

The Juniors

First Row: Woods, Starling, Steinberg, McCarthy, Rindley, Mellion, Rosenberg, H., Low, Schoppert.
Second Row: Marcy, Mintz, Zakarin, Warner, Soriano, Wands, Pellegrini, Rabin, Sweeney, Teschner.
Third Row: McConnell, Mendelson, Levin, Mort, Owens, Parmentier, Rosenberg, M., Lopez, Vandenberge, Sheehe, Senior, Mordan, Moore, Fourth Row: Nickel, Vandermer, Vendelis, McInnes, Mager, Winter, Marchand, Lizewski, Stoner, Rupprecht, Rea, Nicholson.

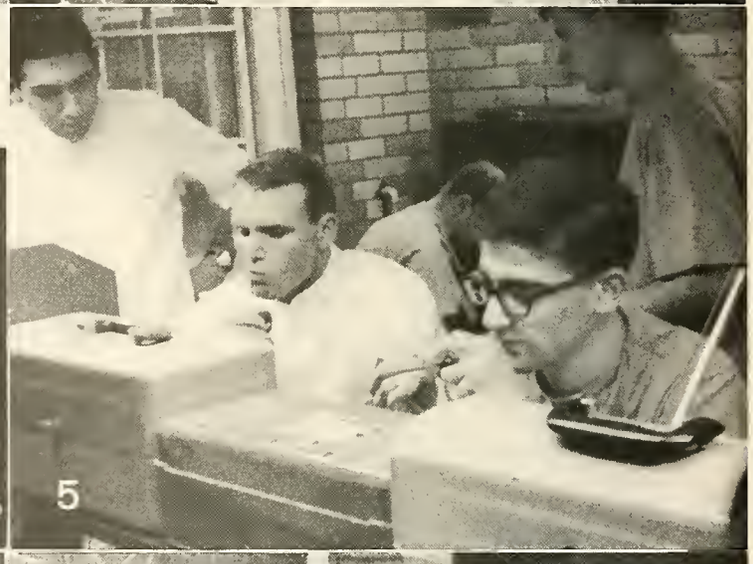
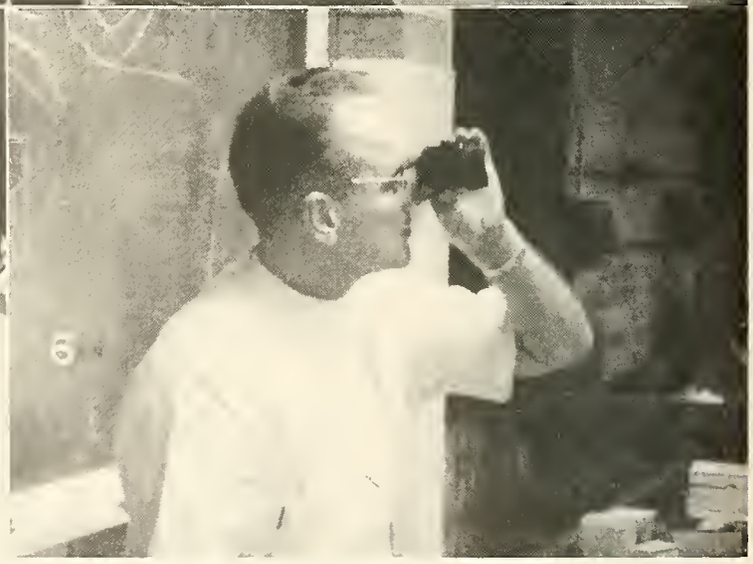
The Juniors





1. Really ma'm? You don't look Jewish.
2. They should be perfect, Dr. Morris. They took my wife three days to wax up.
3. They're up there in Physiology sticking $100 guineas and we can't even get a bunsen burner that works.
4. Here, Doctor. I'll write the name for you. C-E-P-A-C. . . .
5. This red wax kind of sticks to the roof of your mouth.
6. Ole Sarge had quite a figure back in '29.

The Juniors

1. I'll bid two foils and raise you one DO amalgam.
2. . . . and then he took me to a shop that sells saris.
3. We'll never get rid of this stain until you stop smoking.
4. I didn't ask your opinion, Doc!
5. No kidding? They really on 50 yard line?
6. And that, George, is how you cut fingernails!

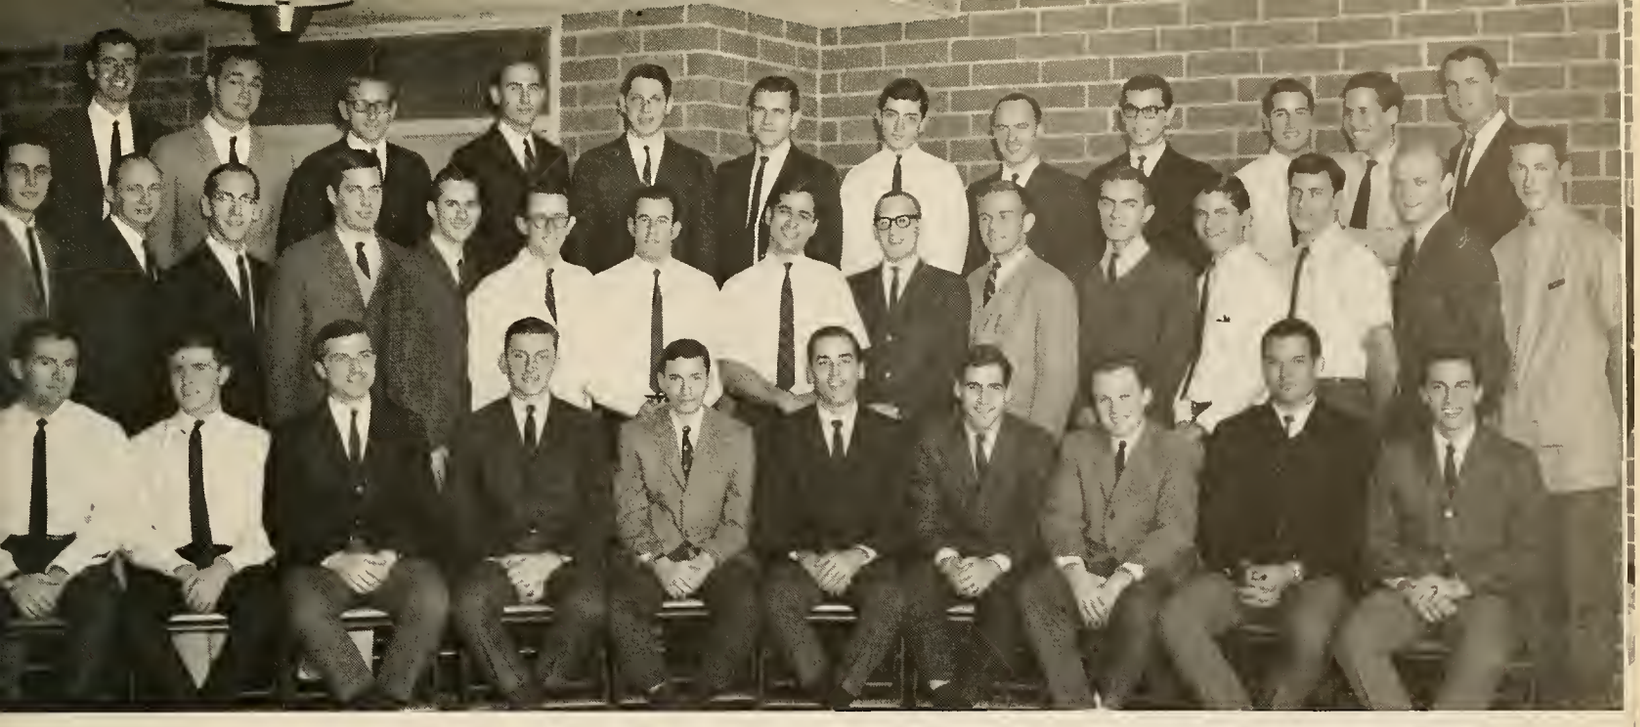
The Class of 1968 has the rare distinction of being the last class under the old system. Everyone knew the Sophomores as the only class in the school with green lab gowns.

The year was hard — Microbiology, Physiology and Pathology took most of the night study hours; Crown and Bridge and setting teeth took any spare lab time we could find. But we seemed to get through most of it. The excitement of our first real dentistry courses, operative, endodontics, and periodontics, was somewhat dimmed by finding out the freshmen knew as much as we learned.

Next year a patient will replace the endoform, and no more new teeth can be bought. The Class of 1968 looks forward to clinical dentistry.

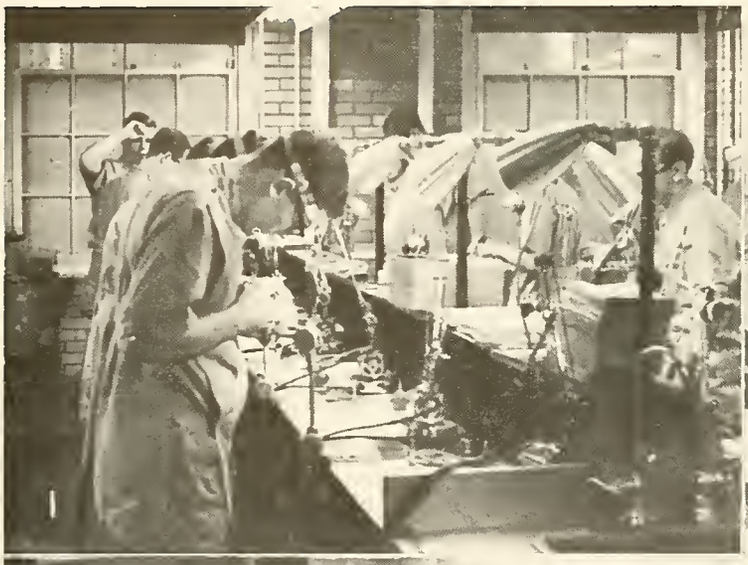


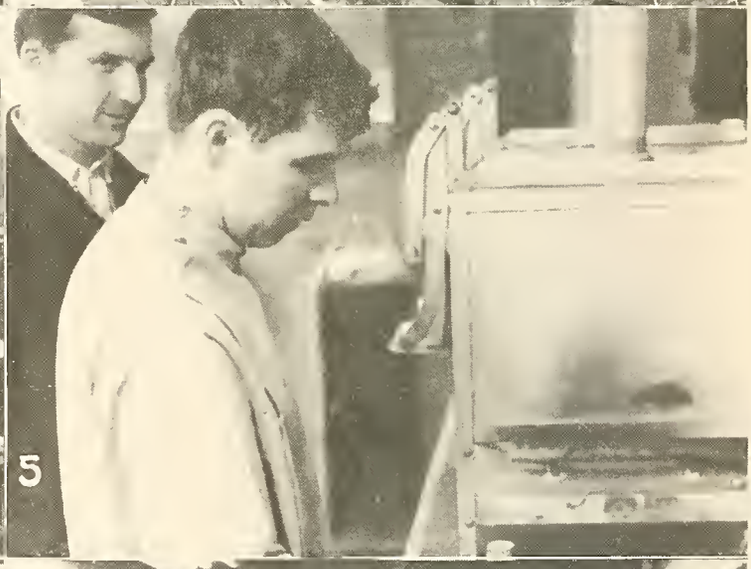
First Row: Litman, Neal, Walsh, Weinkam, Weintraub, Uhlfelder, Trager, Looney, Marien, Levy.
Second Row: Santaniello, Seif, Sullivan, A. ,O'Mailey, Thibault, O'Leary, Porter, Levin, Schein, Pierce, Russell, Rowe, Pollara, Petrich, Scott.
Third Row: Sweeney, Sherwood, Satz, Taggart, Smelkinson, St. Cyr, Theroux, Sullivan, R., Scheiner, Scammell, Massing, Mulvihill.

The Sophomores

First Row: Gandel, Blackard, Brophy, Heher, Levickas, Iuppa.
Second Row: Braun, Breyde, Barren, Baum, Bousquet, Krischer, Hoover, Hill, Brown, Bryson.
Third Row: Lepore, Leibowitz, Lagrotteria, Huther, Denson,Calderazzo, Kassolis, Johnson, Dolgash, Blake, Goldman, M.
Fourth Row: Horwitz, Dunn, Eckman, Keefe, Cruikshank, Dillon, Alwine, Byers, Gormley, Ferraris, Landsman, Ahlfeld.

The Sophomores





1. I just exposed the screw.
2. He said I was equally bad with both hands — ambidextrous.
3. How can we be 3 months behind? We've only been here 4 days.
4. And they gave him a thousand dollars for excellence in teaching!
5. Waddya mean you're supposed to heat this ring first?
6. Okay, what wise guy put fish food all over my desk?

The Sophomores

1. Let's see — that freshman said to do it this way.
2. I used Class III Elmer's glue foil retention.
3. Unaccustomed as I am to public speaking . . .
4. What's the technique for getting your thumb out of the acrylic?
5. The Jungle Green Giants.
6. And without further ado . . . It gives me great pleasure.

RONALD ASKELAND JOHN MOFFITT

On a hot September day the Freshman Class was introduced to a new concept in dental education. Enthused by the honor of being the pilot class for the revised curriculum and inspired by the hope that we might find ourselves in the new dental school building before graduation, we ventured forth to solve the maze of instrumentation and terminology provided by Anatomy, Biochemistry, Histology and Basic Dental Science.

Fortunate to find within its ranks exceptional administrative ability, our class reached a firm unity primarily through the efforts of its capable officers. This unity was reflected academically not only in each individual's desire to succeed but also in his concern for the scholastic success of the class as a whole. Socially, Freshman unanimity was displayed in the overwhelming support given to the many and varied class functions. Highlights of the social calendar were the Class Dance and our entry in the Annual Skit Night competition.

So now we turn our eyes to the future. Facing our Sophomore year, we still possess the enthusiasm and inspiration of that first September day. But more important than these is our newly acquired trait: We stand united!

First Row: Heffron, Campbell, J. J., Brenner, Dormer, Egan, Gioffre, Londergan, Dickes.
Second Row: Kessler, Layton, Frank, Feldman, Bradway, Eisman, Brave, Byrne, Lambson, Davis.
Third Row: Facius, D'Amico, Ezrine, Kirson, Berg, Macht, Auger, Killian, Bohince, Knotts, Hill.
Fourth Row: Duggan, Carroll, Curland, Loverdi, Bucheister, Askeland, Baker, Bishop, Bullock, Chaput, Henshaw, Mankovich.

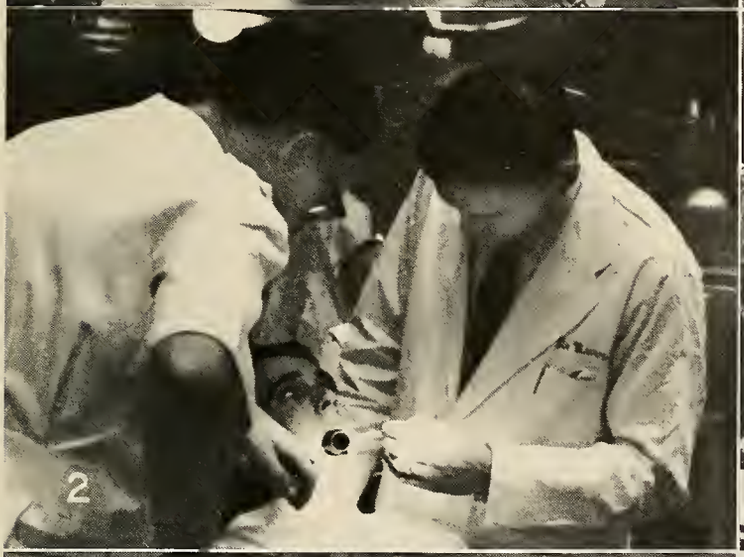
The Freshmen

First Row: Warren, O'Sullivan, Rokoff, Tomosivitch, Smith West, Trefethen, Rizzolo, Waldman.
Second Row: Wanner, Prager, Title, Taylor, Steinberg, Weiner, Schwartz, Schlesinger, Wood, M., Rockoff.
Third Row: Chamberlain, Maroshek, Schoenbrodt, Pellarin, Scott, Radell, Pulliam, Quillian, Martin, Mitcherling, W., Mitcherling, J., Vallillo, Rotman.
Fourth Row: Campbell, J. C., Sartorius, Rubin, Meile, Payne, Reeder, Morris, Moffitt, McCausland, Morganstein, Porter, Stefen, Winebrenner.

The Freshmen

1. I can't grade your work until you have your name tag on.
2. Oh no! He broke the slide again!
3. I've tried those mouthwashes, sir, but they all taste like soda pop.
4. They said fill it with that silver junk.
5. Take it out now — no one's looking.
6. Maybe it's a wrist watch; maybe it isn't.

The Freshmen



1. I'm pretty sure that radiolucency is cleidocranial dysostosis. Don't you agree?
2. Who asked for your opinion?
3. You'll never be a dentist if you'd have bid two hearts.
4. When I said to put on a napkin I meant the patient, Doctor!
5. This would be easier if my nose didn't get in the way.
6. Was that an MOD on S or an SOB on M?

REFLECTIONS

"One of the most boring lectures I've ever attended."

Gorgas Odontological Society

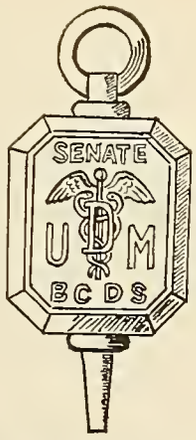
Membership in the Gorgas Odontological Society signifies outstanding academic achievement and leadership in our school and our profession. Each year invitations for membership are given to those juniors and seniors who stand in the first thirty percent of their class.

The Society, formed in 1916, is named in honor of Dr. Ferdinand J. S. Gorgas, an outstanding graduate of the school who was a widely recognized leader in the field of dental education.

Monthly meetings afford members education benefits beyond the outlined dental school curriculum through the presentation of guest speakers. Each year at the spring formal senior members are presented with a key and a certificate. The faculty advisor is Dr. José E. Medina.

Juniors

First Row: Vandermer, Zakarin, Mager, Belvin, Gold, Rosenberg, M., Fielding, Greear, Rabin.
Second Row: Soriano, Wands, Pellegrini, Commette, Bergstresser, DeVries, Collins, Senior, DeRussy, Holston.



Student Senate

President ..... THOMAS CONATY

Vice President ..... JACK FANIOLA

Secretary-Treasurer ..... JAMES WAGNER

First Row: Moffitt, Broadrup, Conaty, Faniola, Egan, Askeland.
Second Row: Dworkin, Widlak, Lizewski, Giordano, Wagner, Vandenberge.

The Student Senate under the leadership of its president, Thomas Conaty, vice-president, Jack Faniola, and secretary-treasurer, Jim Wagner, has moved into an area of rejuvenated activity in 1966. The primary function of the Senate is to establish rapport and maintain communications between the student body and the faculty. This year it has endeavored to promote this function with new vigor. Joint meetings were held between the student affairs committee of the faculty and the Senate each semester to discuss mutual problems. In addition every month the Senate president and the four class presidents have had luncheon meetings with Dean Salley and other members of the administration to shorten the communications gap which has existed between the students and the administration.

This year's Senate has been the most vigorous in recent history not only in relentlessly promoting lines of communication, but also in passing meaningful legislation. A summary of major legislation and activities which have been enacted in 1966 include the following:

A bill providing for the establishment of a central filing system for all class notes to be under the directorship of the vice-president of the Senate with the aid of the vice-presidents of each class.

A revised orientation program which extended over a four-week period, and gave the freshmen some idea of what they could expect in the next four years.

The Senate has acted and will continue to act as a disciplinary board in cases of student misdemeanor while attending school functions.

For the first time an organized basketball league under the directorship of Dick Garlitz involving full participation of every class was formed.

A formal request was made to the board of regents concerning the improvement of facilities of the Health-Sciences library.

The Student Senate was organized in 1952 with the primary objective of serving as a liaison between the student body and the faculty. It tries to promote and maintain harmonious student-faculty relations and considers problems of common interest and recommends solutions. In addition, the Student Senate contributes to the regulation of student life and activities. Five dances are planned for the school year, including the Student Senate Mixer, three class dances, and the senior banquet and dance. The Senate also administers a short-term loan fund. Tournaments are annually scheduled in bowling, basketball, and softball, under its direction.

Interfraternity Council

President ..... STEWART ROSENBERG

Vice President ..... ANTHONY BRAVOS

Secretary-Treasurer ..... ROBERT ESQUIRE

The purpose of the Interfraternity Council is to create and maintain interfraternal feelings throughout the student body and impartially govern those activities of the fraternities connected with school regulations. The Council is composed of the presidents and vice presidents of each of the dental fraternities.

It is the main function of the IFC to supervise the annual rush program in February. The Council also plays an important role, however, in the organization of the various sports programs at the B.C.D.S., and sponsors annually a September swim party, a Halloween dance, and a spring boat ride. The IFC, in addition, awards a trophy, each year, to the senior who is voted by his class as having been most outstanding in student activities during the four years at dental school.

Gamma Pi Delta

President ..... Robert Ragland

Vice President ..... Henry Heim

Secretary ..... Michael Razzano

Treasurer ..... Matthew Blunt

Advisors ..... Dr. Jack C. Morris
Dr. Sham D. Soman

Fourth Row: Becker, Gandel, Dworkin, Belvin, DiSabatino, Romeo, Coletti, Vozzella, Winter, Lopez, Wagner, Zakarin.

Gamma Pi Delta was chartered in 1965 as an honorary student dental organization with scholarship and interest in the field of prosthetic dentistry as a basis for admission.

Gamma, the Grecian letter for G, stands for the name of Dr. Grayson Gaver, a man who loved and dedicated his life to the cause of prosthetic dentistry.

The organiaztion has for its objective the advancement of prosthetic dentistry through lectures, table clinics and other academic activities, with its main theme directed toward stimulating the creative interest of the profession in general.

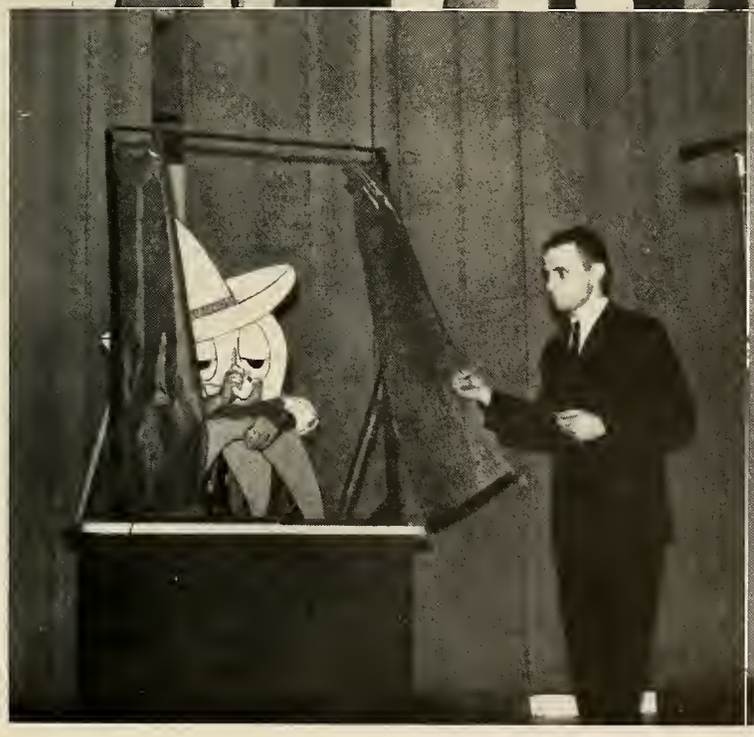
NIGHT



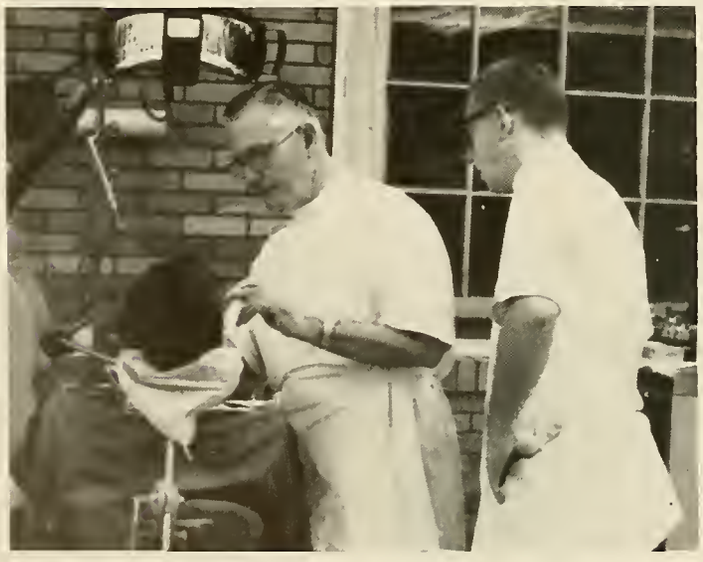
SENIOR BANQUET

Clinics

Crown and Bridge

1. Well, we gambled and lost. Get me a surgery order!

2. I guess it's too late to apologize?



3. Son, this man needs preventive dentistry. Extract 'em all!

4. I wish they would let me help them more.

Prosthetics

1. I just adjusted his wertical.

2. See how natural it looks with the right cuspid overlapping the left central?

4. Now where in the heck did I put my glasses?

3. Come on Dr. Morris, laugh one more time. It breaks me up.

Roentgenology

1. Could you believe he asked me to get up.

2. Yes, it's an English Lint finch.

3. That's the pudental radiolucency.

4. This is a helluva way to light a cigarette.

Pedodontics

1. Okay, sweetheart, open your widdle moufie and wet the doctor put the widdle toofie to sleep with his 6 inch razor-sharp needle.

2. Pretty funny joke, huh? I can get you a whole book of them for $5. What do you say?

4. If you promise to be good, I'll let you sniff the glue in this box.

3. When I touch it with my finger her face lights up.

Operative

1. You want one of us to go out there. Now? Ha! Ha! Ha! Ha! Beat it kid!

2. I know it's a weird habit, but I can't work without my tongue in a cup.

3. I'm sorry, sonny, but I have a date Friday night.

4. Now that was number 5 across the board for two grand, right?

Dentistry

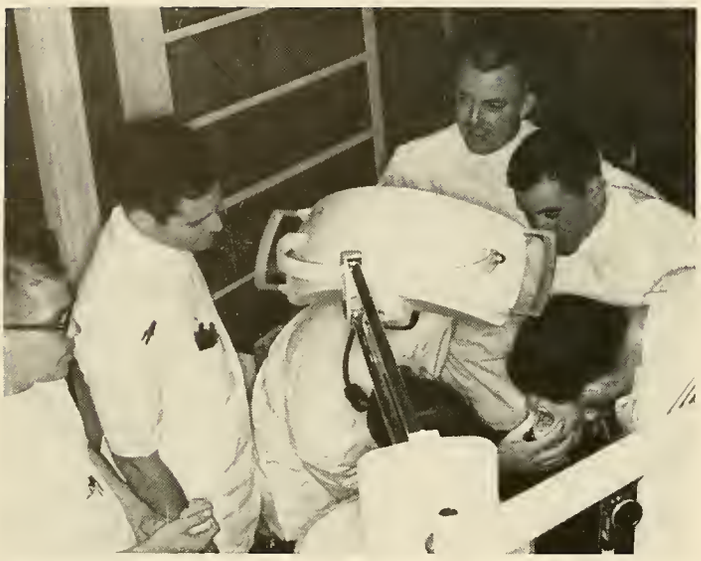
1. As soon as my nail polish dries we'll start drilling, honey!

2. It was silly to come all the way down here to get me. Dr. Van's right up there already.

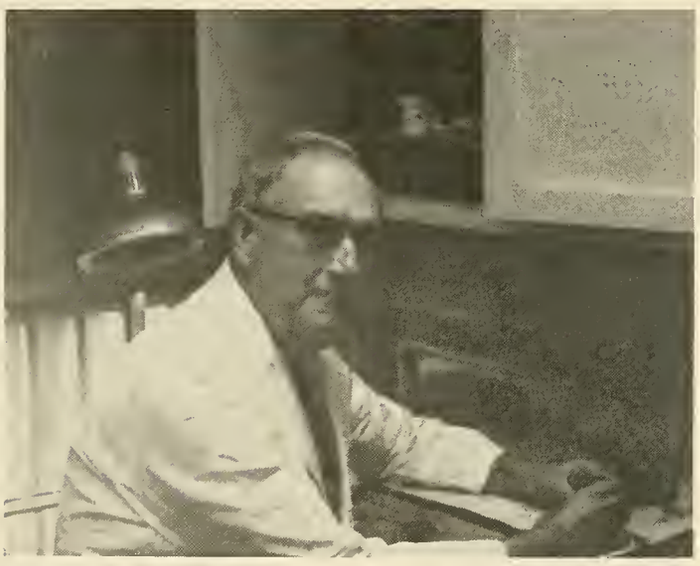
4. See, sir, it's your signature. MOD silicate on number 32.

3. If you're going to respond like that, lady, I won't tell any more jokes.

Orthodontics



1. Yes, gentlemen, this is our first orthodontics patient since 1964!



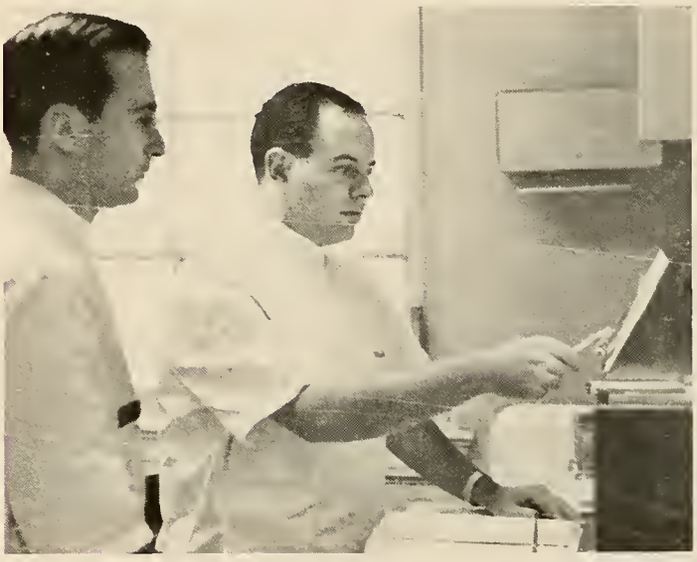
2. I think we can do that, but don't tell Preis.

3. Just a small party . . . You, your girl friend, and us. Waddya say, honey?

4. I'd say serial extractions — molar to molar.

Diagnosis

1. Not THE James Bond!



2. Should we watch the movie or "Peyton Place?"

3. And he swears he's reached menopause!

4. I still don't know where Dr. Smith is.

Oral Medicine

1. Interproximal crater? They're dentures, sir!

2. Normally we leave the spleen intact in this procedure, but . . .

3. Now don't get upset, sir; but when I removed the pack, the teeth came out with it.

4. But I thought "Barnacle Scraping and Related Gum Stuff" would make a pretty catchy thesis title.

Oral Medicine

1. Instead of wasting all that gutta-percha and cement, let's just cover the holes with Scotch tape.

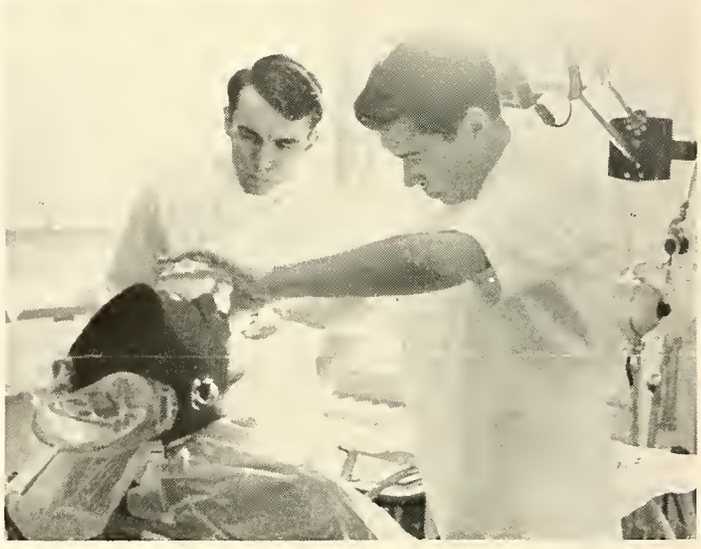
2. Lick my head one more time and I'll fail you in the course.

3. Meanwhile, we're in here shooting the bull, and there's ten guys out there fudging cultures.

4. Now watch how I do this quadrant without even looking at the mouth.

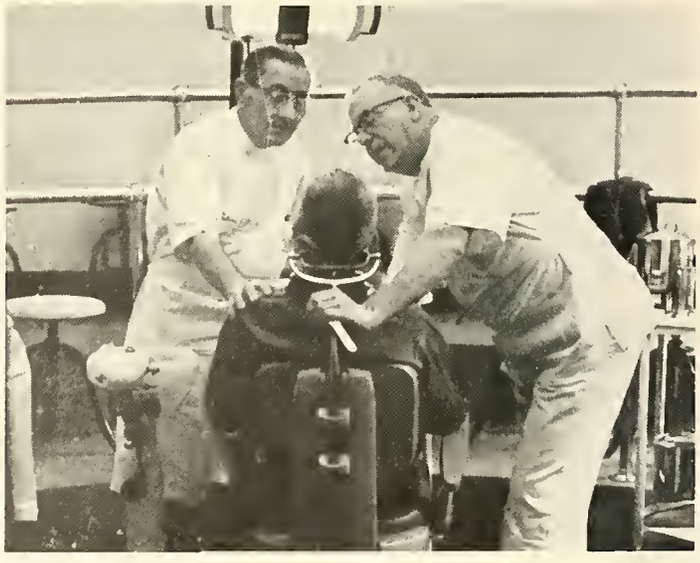
Oral Surgery

1. Okay, you and Mary take the double and I'll take the single with the bath down the hall.



2. When I say go, get up and jump backwards out of the chair.

3. Doctor, your elevator is in her ear.



4. The pompadour's fine, but I'd take a little more off the top.

Features

ISN'T THIS MORE LIKE A MIRROR READER?

We've been here four years and have yet to see . . .

An explorer with a point
The rubber bowls we bought in the Freshman year
A sharp hand instrument
Sarubin and cigarettes
A toothpick wedge
A unit in the cubicle area that works
A sophomore paper without spelling mistakes
A 5-tooth rubber dam
A sterile file or reamer
A crown and bridge notebook and notes in it
The entire class at the same lecture
Anybody return a borrowed instrument
A patient who didn't need perio (even denture wearers)
A neat Kennedy kit
Instruments left in Zephiran for over 30 seconds
A modified crochet hook for removing compound and clamps
A student who knows what "too much torque" means
A ¾ crown (that fit) made from a copper-tube impression
An Operative Instructor on the floor when we needed him
The developer changed in Endodontics
The use of an electroplater
A unit swabbed with alcohol
A platinum foil
An engine belt in Prosthetics
An acceptable plaster wash impression on the first try
A surgery instrument that cuts
A more valuable instrument than a penknife
Larry Hall come to lecture on time
An inlay without a catch
A bigger waste of time than Oral Medicine Assignment
One room in the entire school where smoking is legal
The lost Physiology Exam
An orthodontic patient that wouldn't take too long to treat
A student in Dr. Lu's chair
A 3-minute egg timer for silicates
Red and blue pencils for Perio and Prosthetics
Dr. Smith
Anybody change his zephiran
Practice management ever mentioned in the Practice Management Course
Two inches of clear bench space in the senior lab
A physiology experiment completed before the animal died
The Jet acrylic when you needed it
A patient who could brush his teeth the way we taught him

GENERAL PRACTICE CLINIC PATIENT QUESTIONNAIRE

1. Do you believe you have developed a better rapport with the student or is the chair comfortable? Circle one or more:
   a. Yes
   b. No
   c. Maybe
   d. Sometimes
   e. Always
   f. None of your business
   g. a, b, and c
   h. g, e, and h

2. Do you feel the quality of service performed has improved over and above that still to be performed or do you bring your lunch?
   a. Yes
   b. No
   c. 1, 2, 3, and 4

   (If yes, do you agree?):
   a. Yes
   b. No
   c. All of the above
   d. a and c

3. Have you found that the student has been able to devote more attention to you or do you take A. C. T. H.?
   a. The statement is true but the reason is false.
   b. The statement and reason are both reasons.
   c. The statement is funny but the reason bombed.
   d. The question stinks in entirety.
   e. All of the above.

CHANCE CARDS

You got a copy of the first anatomy exam. Move up 3 spaces.	You broke your box of histology slides. Pay 750 dollars and lose 3 turns.	You now have 4 rubber bowls. You may trade one for one of your partner's extra spatulas and move up 1 space.	You have just been called to the board to answer a Biochemistry problem. Move back 10 spaces.
Your urine bottle broke in your locker. Go back 2 spaces.	Your maid threw out your bone box. Pay 200 dollars and go back 3 spaces.	You're color blind and failed Biochemistry lab. Go back 4 spaces.	You got caught gluing in your Class III foil. Pack up and go home.
Your dog died in Physiology lab after the first fifteen minutes. Leave early and move up 1 space.	You have to sit through Mrs. Stahling's saliva lecture. Out of pity you may advance 3 spaces.	You spilled Clostridium Botulitum in your lab partner's lunch. Use his synopsis of infections and go ahead 3 spaces.	You did your Pedo. preparation in your hand and polished it on a lathe. Your grade was a 65 — highest in the class. Move up 5 spaces. You're ready for the clinic.
Your class just sold your back exams to the freshmen for 250,000 dollars. Take your cut and move up 10 spaces.	You got a 20 on your slide box evaluation. Take a "D" in Micro and go back 10 spaces.	You began your first speech with "and without further ado." Go back 5 spaces.	Dr. Clement changed your Junior and Senior gold foil requirements to amalgam. Go back 37 spaces.
It takes 8 hours and 36 minutes to put on your first rubber dam, and you're certain you'll never graduate . . . You're right! Drop back 15 spaces, you spastic!	You spent all day polishing a 97 point amalgam only to have to tear it out because Dr. Formica says it's too shiny.	You've taken 133 copper tube impressions of a preparation without success, but you can't take a rubber base because you haven't had the lectures yet.	You cheated on your Endo culture and it came out positive anyway. Go back 5 spaces.
The patient passes out as you place a napkin around his neck, but Dr. Beaven won't give you an anesthesia order. Go home for a few days.	Dr. Rankin plugs a 3mm. catch on an inlay with amalgam and gives you an A. Move up 20 spaces.	You called tartar calculus in Crown and Bridge. Go back 3 spaces.	You called calculus "tartar" in Perio. Go back 3 spaces.
Mrs. Moran refuses to check off your denture waxup. Go back 5 spaces.	You lost your Colt tickets and failed Crown and Bridge. Go back 10 spaces.	You got lice at Western Health. Go see Dr. Ogden (from 12:29 to 12:29.8 on rainy Thursdays).	You spouted off at O.P.D. and got punched out. Go back 3 spaces.
You wore desert boots on Oral Medicine assignment. Walk the plank.	From September 1 to May 30 they told you not to worry about requirements. It's now June 1 and you aren't worrying any more. You're a Junior again.	You had to change instructors for a final denture adjustment. Move back 10 spaces and take new compound impressions.	You waxed up 4 partials the day after the lab money ran out. Lose 5 turns.

Things to look forward to . . .

The trust in a little girl's eyes. Added years of health for an old man. A youngster who's no longer afraid . . .

People you'll help in your new career—things to be proud of—the reason, really, you've chosen dentistry as your life.

Great to contribute so much to so many! And even greater to think of the years ahead—years in which your work, and the way you do it, will be vital to more people than you can imagine.

As the years roll by, our job will be in helping you perform this increasingly complex work. In doing our part, we'll get involved in such things as basic research, product cost control, safeguarding your equipment investment, better office design, work simplification, effective use of auxiliary personnel, service excellence and availability.

It all boils down to one thing: we'd like to help you provide better dentistry for more people. That's pretty important to everyone. Good luck in your new career, Doctor!

hallmark of a reliable product

a guide for buyers of dental supplies

Professional success in dentistry—reputation and acclaim—is earned by hard work presented with integrity, accomplished with skill, and resulting in satisfaction to patients.

A dental manufacturer wins success in the same manner. Research, product development, convenience packaging, advanced engineering . . . fair prices for fine quality . . . supplies and equipment that satisfy dentists the world over because they contribute functionally to professional skill.

How will you present your first denture case?

Your patient is likely to be apprehensive. Chances are, you may be a little nervous yourself.

In such a situation you will want to use every possible means to gain your patient's confidence and create the proper emotional climate for your diagnosis and treatment.

Consider the Blend Selector for Trubyte Bioblend. It is an invaluable aid to natural tooth color selection. And, during the all important first appointment, it is a highly effective instrument for demonstrating your own professional knowledge and skill.

The Blend Selector is so unique it is patented. There is nothing like it in the entire world of dentistry. Ask your Trubyte Dealer to show you its use, in practice—for your first denture case, and for all the denture cases in your forthcoming career.
